Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to communication filed on 5/3/2007.
2. Applicant has elected group I, consisting of claims 22-23 and 29-35.
3. Applicant is reminded that claims not elected are presumed withdrawn. A new claim listing must be provided. See 37 CFR 1.121.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claim 31 depends from cancelled claim 27. Correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 22, 29-32 and 35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Johnson et al. (5,712,989 hereinafter Johnson).

Johnson teaches an electronic commerce system. A host (Figure 1, item 10) adapted for two-way communication with a plurality of distributors, each of said plurality of distributors offering an inventory of merchandise comprising discrete items (Figure 1, 52), said host adapted to issue order to the plurality of distributors in response to purchase requests received (see figure 1); and

A store builder adapted suitable adapted to, in response to a request from a store owner, create a store managed by the host for the store owner, said store providing a consumer with access, via said distributors, to at least one merchandise item selected from the inventory (Figures 1, 2B and 3); the store is customized by store name (see table V).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 23 and 33-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Johnson.

Claims 23 and 33-34 further recite a store URL and multiple store each with a different URL. Official notice is taken that is old and well known to use an URL to locate a site on the World Wide Web. Some stores have multiple URL's for each location in order to easily identify of their location. It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of Applicant's invention to have included a store URL and multiple store each with a different URL in order to obtain the above mentioned advantages.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 22-23 and 29-35 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

11. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
